

Graduate Course Description Packet

August Intersession 2016

Updated: 03-16-2016

ENGL 5243, Special Topics: Novel Writing Boot Camp

Teacher: Jensen

Description: This course is designed for graduate students who have novels-in-progress to learn about the practical aspects of novel writing, such as outlining, chapter organization, moving from outline to chapter, and moving from chapter to chapter. Students will work to shift from their novel ideas toward execution, and the course will offer the necessary skills and frameworks to work independently on their novels after the course ends.